

SEASIA Governing Board Meeting & Conference, 16-17 December, 2017

The Director of the Institute of Asian Studies (UBD-IAS), Dr Jeremy Jammes, has signed the renewed Consortium for Southeast Asian Studies in Asia \(SEASIA\) Charter during the conference hosted by Chulalongkorn University (Bangkok) held on December 16-17, 2017.

This Charter aims to strengthen our collaborations with other leading hubs of Asian and Southeast Asian studies in the region, including:

- Asia Research Institute (ARI), National University of Singapore;
- Asian Center, University of the Philippines;
- Center for Asia-Pacific Studies, Academia Sinica;
- Center for Southeast Asian Studies (CSEAS), Kyoto University;
- Center for Southeast Asian Studies (NCCU), National Chengchi University, Taiwan;
- Indonesian Institute of Sciences (LIPI);
- Institute of Asian Studies, Chulalongkorn University;
- ISEAS Yusof Ishak Institute (ISEAS), Singapore
- School of Humanities and Social Sciences, Nanyang Technological University;
- School of International Studies (SIS), Jinan University, China;
- Southeast Asia Research Center (SEARC), City University of Hong Kong; and
- Taiwan Association of Southeast Asian Studies.

Upon completion of this process, several IAS faculty and research associates (Steve Druce, Chang Yau Hoon, Jeremy Jammes, Bruno Jetin, Kathrina Mohd Daud) presented papers at the conference.